

The Second Congregational Conversation!

During the first Congregational Conversation on January 28, over 450 people from UBC shared well over a thousand stories with their newfound UBC friends. These stories and themes reveal underlying values apparent in the people of UBC. We will return many times to these values as we continue to build the congregational profile to be provided to the Search Committee and the prospective Senior Pastor candidates.

During the 2nd Congregational Conversation we will be together again to look in the mirror at ourselves within UBC and through the window at our community and hear from some community leaders.

Please check out the new series of social media posts where team members share words said and the themes and values revealed. You will also find those on our website at ubc.org/transition. Your stories are telling the story of UBC!

Register here for the 2nd Congregational Conversation on Sunday, March 28, starting at 6 pm on Zoom.
